DESIRABLE PROPERTY.
I WILL SELL OR EXCHANGE FOR GOOD City property one of the best Cotton and Grain Farms in Eastern North Carolina. The tract of land contains about twenty-two hundred acres, of which seven hundred acres are cleared, under fence and in good condition for cultivation. A large part of it is in cultivation this year. The soil is fertile, neighborhood good, labor cheap and plentiful. The dwelling house is large and commodious, with all necessary and convenient outhouses. The Stables, Barns, Houses for laborers &c. are good and numerous. This farm lies immediately on navigable water, and has passing through it good water power, where there is now a Grist and Saw Mill and Cotton Gin. The place is desirable for conducting large Mercantile operations, and is a beautiful location for a town or colony. A Steamer passes every day, and touches at the wharf two hundred yards in front of the dwelling. The surrounding county is rich and improving, and settled by intelligent, refined and prosperous people. Address WILLIAM GRIMES, Raleigh, N. C.

THE ATROCITY OF GOV. HOLDEN'S CONDUCT.

The condemnation of Gov. Holden's course is unanimous among the intelligent, sober, conservative men, without regard to party. But the masses of the people while they have a general idea that it is bad, have no conception of its atrocity. Look for instance at the enormous swindles and rogueries perpetrated upon the State by the "Ring," in which he must have been an active participator and beneficiary, or he must have colluded with them. It is perfectly manifest, if he had cared a fig for the pecuniary condition of the State or people, he could have defeated at a word, the penitentiary swindle, the Railroad swindles and the heavy expenditures on State account which he has encouraged. If he had not been a party to the State-bond swindles, he might with the utmost propriety have refused to order the Public Treasurer to issue the bonds in large amounts, and thus have prevented the wholesale swindles of Littlefield & Co.

There is a very general opinion that Holden has profited personally by these swindles, but however this may be, it is palpable to every man of reflection, that W. W. Holden is justly chargable for the enormous public debt created by the last Legislature, and for the present enormous expenditure of public money and the consequent taxation which has been imposed upon the people. Indeed, the spirit of extravagance and waste which has been infused into the Legislature, into our county officers and the municipal governments of our towns and cities by carpet-bag influence, has been fostered and promoted by him, when he might have checked and prevented this waste. He has encouraged it from sinister designs to build up himself and his party, reckless of the people's wants and condition.

But the crowning act of his atrocious and wicked conduct, is to be found in the cool, deliberate and demoniacal purpose of Holden, Pool, Settle, Pearson and others, to [illegible] elections for Radicalism at the hazard of civil war in the State, the murder of our people and the pillage and waste of the State. Yes, the purpose was Satanic and was participated in by men under diabolical influences. Pool, Settle, and others skulked from an open participation in this wicked purpose, but Holden was ready to execute the diabolical plot, provided, he could secure his own neck from the halter. This wicked scheme would have fallen through, but for the pledge made by President Grant, that he would stand to Holden's back at all hazards. This can be established.

"It is matter of record, Holden has the written proof in his possession; he has shown it to his friends and announced it repeatedly through his organ, the Standard, that President Grant would support Holden's measures by the whole power of the government. When Col. Bedford Brown, of Caswell, visited President Grant, to lay before him the grievances of the people of Caswell against the violent measures of Kirk and Holden, the President told him, emphatically, that if the people of North Carolina resisted Holden's military movements, he (Grant) would devastate the country and put them down at all hazards by U. S. troops. Col. Brown came home utterly discouraged, not having been able to get the President to listen to any statement which did not recognize as true the lying statements made to him by Holden, Pool, Settle and Abbott.

The most high-wrought, false and damaging accounts of Ku Klux violence in North Carolina—all the crimes of Loyal Leaguers being charged to the account of Ku Klux—were laid before the President and the Northern people, representing the people as in arms both against the State and General Governments, as the reason to induce President Grant to back up Holden's military scheme, (ostensibly to put down Ku Klux) but to carry the elections in August for the Radicals.

The law allowed Holden to enrol and organize the militia of the State, (all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of twenty one and forty years of age, except persons having religious scruples) and to detail a portion of the militia at any time to suppress riots or insurrections or to enforce the law. If Holden had carried out the law of the State, no one could have complained. Every law-abiding man in the State would have sustained him, had he shown in a single instance, that his purpose was really to suppress crime. Not a soldier nor a musket was needed to put down crime and restore the law. All that was needed, was honest men on the bench and honest Sheriffs, to execute the law. This Holden knew. But he and Pool, and Settle and Pearson and others, had villainous designs. Did Holden enrol the militia and organize them? He did not. So far as we can learn, the militia of no County in the State has been enrolled and organized yet. Holden has been in office two years with an Adjutant General at a high salary, and the militia of North Carolina is still unenrolled and unorganized. Of course Holden could not wait to do this. He therefore determined to organize an army of State troops without the consent of Congress. His official announcements, proclamations and the assumptions of the officers all declared that he had enlisted in the State service regular volunteer troops for a given time unless sooner discharged, to be armed, equipped, and paid as U. S. troops. These troops 200 of them if not not more, came from Tennessee, as well as the officers of Col. Kirk's regiment. Were these State militia? Many both in Kirk's and Clarke's regiment were under 21 years of age. Were these State militia? No, no. None of these troops were called militia until recently. They were regular troops and a regular army, and to give them, with Kirk, Clark and Burgen, a proper field to operate, in Alamance and Caswell were declared to be in insurrection, when there was not a man in either county armed against the government or against any one else with gun or bludgeon. These Counties at the time of the proclamation were in a state of profound peace. The inhabitants were astonished to hear they were in insurrection.

The military commenced their violent outrages—the best citizens were arrested without warrant—many of them hung up by the neck, others by their thumbs, others were threatened with pistols at their heads, to force them to confess crimes they knew nothing of. Appeals to the State judiciary, except to Judge Mitchell were made in vain. Their appeal to the U. S. Judiciary Holden resisted. The Public Treasurer and the paymaster of the Treasury were enjoined by Judge Mitchell on application of a tax payer, not to pay out any monies to the unlawful State Troops. Holden determined not to be headed off. In defiance of law, in defiance of the Judiciary, he removes the paymaster from office, forces him to pay over the funds to a new appointee of his, and makes him pay off his State Troops, without law and in defiance of it! Tennessee was cursed with a Brownlow—but was he half so lawless—half so vindictive and malicious as Holden!

JUDGE BOND AND THE BURGIN CASE.

We alluded very briefly, yesterday, to the case of George B. Burgin, brought before Judge Bond on Wednesday, on a writ of habeas corpus. The grounds alleged in the petition for the writ were, want of jurisdiction in the case on the part of Judge Brooks, by whom he was examined and committed, for want of bail, and the informality and illegality of the proceedings in the case.

The petition for a discharge, on the above grounds, was urged by Messrs. Badger and Bailey who evidently labored under great difficulty for want of facts and logical arguments, and, (we say it in no disparagement to them, for even the best lawyers must make a poor showing in a bad case,) they certainly felt sensibly the difficulties under which they labored.

Judge Battle, Judge Merrimon and Kemp P. Battle, Esq. acted as counsel for the Marshal, and the two first named entered fully into the argument, and we have no hesitation in saying that, had we been a dict, we should not have hesitated a moment in finding, on the law and testimony, that Judge Brooks had jurisdiction, that the proceedings were in legal form, answering all the requirements of the law on the subject; that the answer to the writ was full and sufficient, and that the prisoner was properly and legally held to answer for the cruelties and barbarities practiced by him on the prisoners in his charge. These facts were not only clearly established by quotations from legal authorities, but by arguments and deductions, eloquently and logically drawn.

As stated yesterday, Judge Bond, at the conclusion of the argument, stated that he would take the papers with him, give the subject mature consideration and return his decision to the Marshal in due time.

Judge Bond during his short stay here, made a more favorable impression than we anticipated, and we learn that, before leaving, he expressed high gratification at the kindly feeling manifested toward himself, as well as at the peaceful temper of our people, notwithstanding the exciting scenes through which we have so recently passed. We think that certain parties in this State have been somewhat disappointed in Judge Bond.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.—The papers announced that Chief Justice Chase, who is now with his daughter, Mrs. Sprague, in Rhode Island, is suffering severely from a recent attack of paralysis. This is not the first attack and we observe serious fears are expressed as to his health. The death of Judge Chase at this time we would seriously deplore. He is much needed on the Bench and especially so, since were he to die, his place would be supplied by one it is likely, who would feel obliged to be a partisan. O for a pure judiciary!

OFFICIAL MUSS IN HALIFAX.—The newly elected county officials of Halifax seem to have some difficulty in getting on their official robes. The seats of three of the County Commissioners are contested on the ground of wilful frauds in counting and making up the votes. The newly elected Sheriff failed to give his bond, ditto, of some of the others, and they were given until Saturday to perform the mighty task, which will be too hard, we think, for some of them. The News from which we get the information, states that the old Sheriff, Reid, has given notice that he will hold over under the law and Constitution.

WHERE'S HE FROM!—Dr. Samuel T. Young has been nominated on the Radical ticket for Lieutenant Governor of Florida. He is said to be a carpet bagger and is said to hail from North Carolina or Virginia.—We don't know many of that name in North Carolina belonging to that breed, and they are provided for at home; we therefore surrender to Virginia all claim we might set up to the honor of his nativity.

THE INJUNCTION.

It has been already intimated, that the injunction, issued by Judge Mitchell enjoining the Public Treasurer and the Paymaster from paying out any public monies whatever on account of Holden's unlawful State troops, was broken on Sunday and Monday last by the peremptory order of Gov. Holden, who removed Mr. A. D. Jenkins, son of Public Treasurer Jenkins and Paymaster or cashier of the Treasury, and ordered him to deliver over the funds to Richard T. Berry, Mayor of New Bern, Brigadier General of State Militia, Brigade Quarter Master with the rank of Major, and Paymaster pro tempore of the army of North Carolina or the State troops. Young Mr. Jenkins felt reluctantly obliged to comply with the rigorous demand of Gov. Holden, paid the money over to Berry and Berry paid off the troops and himself, in obedience to the mandate of Holden. Judge Mitchell has therefore served a rule on Mr. A. D. Jenkins, ordering him to appear before him at Chambers in Statesville, to show cause why he shall not be attached and punished for contempt.

Holden has demanded of the Public Treasurer at sundry times to do lawless things, as in this case, he has of his son. They have both acted wrong and unworthy of their high trusts by compliance in a single instance with demands from any one, Governor or what not, to violate the law of the land. They ought to have resigned peremptorily, before consenting to be used by Holden or any one else in unlawful conduct. It is not sound doctrine that an Agent is bound to obey the principal, even if he demands a wrong and unlawful act. Nor is it true, that the Agent is guiltless in the eye of the law and that the principal must bear all the penalty. There are cases perhaps, where society might be satisfied as in this case, if Holden could be made to bear the guilt, as he ought, of Kirk's and Burgen's conduct as well as all the unlawful acts of his officers, but justice and law and the safety of society demand not only the punishment of the principal but of all the accessories to crime. In this case, however, the facts when known may somewhat palliate Mr. Jenkins' offence

The Richmond Enquirer makes the following note upon the false telegram sent from here on the 1st Sept. in regard to Judge Pearson's decision on the Alamance cases. If that investigation were a fair sample of North Carolina tribunals of justice, the Enquirer might safely predicate anything of them, that was partizan in spirit and in purpose, and oblivious of justice and right. The Enquirer says:

It is quite impossible to predicate anything of the tribunals of justice, so-called, in the old North State, and we therefore have no denial to make of the statements above; but it occurs to us that before applying the legal theory that each member of a conspiracy is responsible for all its acts, it would be well to prove that there is a Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina; and secondly, that it has done any mischief. The facts that Holden is not hung to one of the numerous trees in Raleigh, and that the bandit Kirk was allowed to leave the State without a bullet in his midriff demonstrate that the North Carolina Ku Klux is an extremely mild and utterly inefficient member of the order, and deserves instant extinction.

BIG FALLS, N. C., Sept. 7, 1870.

EDITOR SENTINEL: Dear Sir, in the proceedings of the Supreme Court, as published in the SENTINEL of the 5th inst., in the case of Albert Murray, Wm. Redding and others, charged with conspiracy &c, the report says, the parties were each recognized in the sum of $2,000 to appear at the next term of the Superior Court of Alamance county, which is true; but it leaves the impression on the public that the charges were sustained by the evidence, which is not true, as there was no evidence offered to sustain the charge.

When Mr. Badger, of counsel for the prosecution suggested to the Court that he was not ready for trial for the lack of important witnesses and moved that the parties be recognized to appear again (at some indefinite time,) before the Judges to answer the charges, the counsel for the defense suggested, that, though they had not had an opportunity to confer with the parties concerned, (they having but just got to the city and being under arrest) but presumed they would have no objection to being at once bound over to answer at the next term of Alamance Superior Court, which met with my approval and also the approval of the counsel for the prosecution, and it was accordingly so done, recognizance taken and the parties released.

I well know that so far as I am concerned, they can never make the charge good except through perjured witnesses.

Respectfully,
A. MURRAY.

WILKERSON ON "RINGS."

A correspondent of the Hearth and Home, (by-the way, one of the best family weeklies in this country) who writes a good deal of ungrammatical good sense, gets off the following in a recent communication, concerning "Rings:"

I'm not ag'in improvements—not when they are improvements.

As I said to the Parson t'other night, who's a little riled about the taxes on his homestead, says I: "Parson, I believe in keepin' roads up and keepin' bridges up, all tidy, and in first rate order; but I don't believe," says I, "in these 'ring' fellows spendin' all the money in one place, and tryin' to make a moniment for themselves, and givin' their understrappers who do the dirty work election days a fat job, "We are gettin' to be old fellows," says I, "Parson, and it don't make much odds with us; but if we don't break up these 'rings,' the young folks will have a hard time of it; you may depend on that," says I.

"I don't much believe in preachin' politics," says I, "Parson; but if you was to give a little slant off some odd Sunday," says I, "ag'inst the awful way these scalawags are runnin' up the taxes, it's my opinion you'd hit it," says I. "There was a Judas of Galilee," says I, "if you want Scriptur' upon it, who lived in the time of taxation, and was the devil's own child, and came to a bad end, as you know," says I; "it's my opinion that that Judas was a tax-gatherer or a tax-assessor, or had built a bridge or a 'town-house,' or was in the 'Ring.'"

"I guess likely he was, Mister Wilkerson," says the Parson.

PERSONAL.—Gen. Matt Ransom, Col. Venable, Col. DeRossett and M. W. Garrison of New York, are in the City stopping at the Yarbrough.

FROM NORTH-EATERN CAROLINA.

The late political contest, in this section of the State, for good government, wholesome and equitable laws, upon the part of the Conservatives, opposed to a continuance of the Holden Pol-Swepson Littlefield "ring," by the Radicals, was hot indeed—Never before has the people been so fully aroused.

The SENTINEL comes to us, teeming with news from every part of the gallant West, to our great delight. Ye honest, brave men of the West! ye Conservatives and Democrats that would not be intimidated and forced from duty by Holden, Kirk—the charge bayonet—the guns and pistols brought to a ready—neither by examples made, of imprisonment in loathesome places of a number of our best citizens! We honor you and love you for your courage, and for the part you have done in rescuing the old State-Ship dismantled and hulked as she is!

We of the East are anxious to shew you people of the West that we are not in apathy, but that our hearts well up with yours for our deliverance on the 4th day of Aug. last, from a carpet bag and scalawag Legislature and political dominance, that our hearts run out with yours, to Josiah Turner Jr. as the great instrument to the accomplishment of the victory then; and to Judge Brooks, a just Judge, who rescued Mr. Turner and those other good citizens, by the peaceful process of the law of the land, from the miserable, though contemptable, wrath of Holden; thus vindicating the right of personal liberty, to even the meanest citizen and securing it for all time. But we must not delay longer telling about our day of rejoicing in Camden, especially set apart.

Thursday, the 25th of August, we had a barbecue. A large stand was erected under the grand old oak that stands on the Court House grounds. By 11 o'clock A. M., two thousand white people, four or five hundred of whom were ladies; and large numbers of colored people were on the ground. Mr. J. P. Whedbee of Elizabeth City, a young member of the bar was the first to speak. That he is a young man of great promise was well attested on that occasion. Col L. D. Starke of Norfolk, Va., was next introduced. His was a brilliant and effective effort. Not a voice or a movement, save that of the speaker, was heard throughout that vast throng of anxious listeners to the truth as it was dispensed by eloquent lips. Capt. Jarvis, of Tyrrell, followed Capt. Stark Marked attention was paid Capt. Jarvis as he told some of the mean things he saw and heard when a member of the famous Legislature of 1868-'69, and all done by Radicals. Among the many things he said to prove the utter depth of degradation to which the Legislature was tried, in comparison with other Legislature in better days, stated that he had not seen a white lady in the Commons gallery during the session of '69. (Speed jokes Jarvis) The ladies present felt proud of the sex; were eulogistic of the ladies who were at Raleigh during the sessions of 1868-'9, and smiled sweetly and approvingly on Capt. Jarvis. Mr. Burwell Baxter of Currituck, made the last speech before taking refreshments. Short and pungent, it impressed his character upon each hearer.

About 1 o'clock we partook of the good things that burdened the tables. Such an amount of well served food I never saw before. Mr. ——, of Hertford, remarked that there was more to eat at the barbecue than was then contained in some counties. Our people are very poor, but the poorest parted with a large amount of the best they had, to commemorate with marked enthusiasm, the event which called them together. Mr. John Chamberlin, the Commoner elect for the county, commenced the speaking in the afternoon. His speech was short but well timed and to his entire credit. Then came the old scarred and battered, unconquerable and never dispirited war horse. He who discussed thoroughly the Holden-Pool conspiracy and the Swepson and Littlefield thefts and the carpet bag-scalawag Legislature, at every precinct in this Senatorial District, to his own great honor and the enlightenment and delight of his constituents. Dr. Speed spoke at length against his desire. The people would have him "go on!" Mr Skinner, Senator elect, also from this District, was on the stand. The people of Camden are highly pleased with their venerable and intellectual Senators. Col. G. G Luke, of Camden, Mr. T. G. Gilliam, of Hertford, Perquimans county, and Mr. Wm. Shaw, of Currituck, also addressed the meeting. The crowd was evidently delighted to the very end of the day's proceedings. After three cheers for Brooks and Turner the meeting adjourned.

NORTH CARLINA DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, NUMBER TWO.

MR. EDITOR: Allow me to assure you that the people of Virginia, not only sincerely sympathized with their brethren of "The good Old North State," in their late afflictions, to which they were subjected by an upstart and unprincipled usurper and tyrant, who, in league with a time serving and corrupt judiciary, would have perpetuated their wrongs, but that they greatly rejoice in their present deliverance from an oppression which has scarce a parallel in the history of the world.

The forbearance and the prudence which they exhibited under the aggravated wrongs to which they were subjected, and the determination and firmness which they manifested when the proper time arrived for throwing off the galling and intolerable yoke, gave proof of the fact that they are a wise as well as a brave people.

The first of all their countrymen to declare their independence of a foreign oppressor, they have showed by their recent action not only that they will never submit to a domestic tyrant, but that they know the day most appropriate and the means best fitted to accomplish their Heaven born purpose.

Let me say that their Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, honorable as it was to their patriotism, is eclipsed by their demonstration of 4th August 1870, a day which will be henceforth recognized by an admiring world as its most glorious epoch in all their history; for they

> "Upon that day tyrannic fraud defied,
> And met the surting of oppressions tide,
> And like a bulwark roll'd it back and said
> Here shall thy blows, hated power be stay'd."

Whilst others then shall celebrate the 4th July, as the anniversary of their deliverance from foreign misrule, let North Carolinians keep sacred the 4th of August, as the day of their emancipation from a domestic tyranny as far exceeding that from which our honored ancestors freed themselves, as the Heavens are higer than the earth!

OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 TO 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.
Yours truly,
C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.
Yours very respectfully,
JAS. R. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND CO., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.
Respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. BLOCKER

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.:-Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

E. H. POGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents, I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.
Yours truly,
W. T. HOWLE.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1870.

☞ JNEA N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

We are authorized to announce Mr. William E. Pell, Jr., of this city as a candidate for Reading or Assistant Clerk of the State Senate. Mr. P. has been the Reporter of the SENTINEL in the Senate for several years.

Sept. 2 tf.

CLUBS.—We are indebted to our friend L. C. Hubbard of Clinton for a fine club of subscribers and the cash.

Also to our friend J. Hussey of Newton, for an additional club and the cash.

We are highly gratified at these marks of appreciation. Our list though ought to be doubled and might be easily, by a little effort.

ENLARGEMENT.—We hope in a month from this time greatly to enlarge the size of the SENTINEL and give it an entirely new dress. Our advertising patronage demands it. Our friends can materially aid in this matter by sending in subscribers. Those indebted to the office will please send in the amount due.

Judge Shipp is in the city and in fine health. He bears his honors meekly. He will take the oaths of office as soon as a Judge can be found to administer them.

WANTED.—The Board of Commissioners of this County are on the hunt for a County Treasurer, the one elect being unable to give the required bond of $60,000.

At the time of this writing, we understand, the Board is in session filling vacancies and attending to various other matters that come within their jurisdiction.

SOME FINE GRAPES.—Mr. S. D. Franklin, who has wisely withdrawn from the muddy pool of politics and entered upon improving his farm, orchards, gardens and vineyards, has sent us a box of most delicious grapes, of the Concord and Isabella species, for which he will please accept our acknowledgments. The bunches of these grapes were large and the berries full, plump and luscuous. The box containing them is also worthy of notice. It is made of only three pieces, very thin and prepared expressly for the purpose—one piece at end and the other forming the sides, top and bottom, bent squarely at the corners. In these boxes Mr. Franklin can send grapes to order to any reasonable distance. We learn that he has a fine crop on his vines this season.

We learn that neither Judge Settle nor Judge Rodman have arrived to try the proposition to dissolve the injunction of Judge Mitchell. Holden didn't wait for them. He cut the Gordian knot himself and he deserves attaching for contempt.

> "O! Tam, O Tam,
> Thou'll get thy ferrin,
> When hell will roast thee,
> Like a herrin."—Burns Tam O'Shanter.

MRS. MCGOWAN'S SOAPS.—We are indebted to Mrs. E. R. McGowan for specimens of her Mineral Soaps of her own manufacture, from the deposites of Kittrell's Mineral Spring. These soaps are said to be excellent for diseases of the Skin, Ringworm, Tetter, Erisipelas &c. They are prepared with great care and are highly recommended. Orders will be promptly attended to.

HOME INSURANCE CO.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column, that our "Home" (Fire) Insurance Company, in this city, has paid, with honorable fidelity, its heavy losses by the late disastrous conflagration in Henderson. It has thus assisted that unfortunate town greatly towards recuperation. We commend the House for its prompt fairness and speak a good word for it to all insurers. Take a Home Company always in preference.

ATTENTION FIRE DEPARTMENT.—We learn that an elegant and costly FIREMAN'S TRUMPET will be awarded at the Temperance Fair next week to the Company whose Foreman or Captain shall receive the highest number of votes from visitors to the Fair, each ticket entitling the purchaser to one vote. We presume that the competition for this handsome prize will be quite spirited, giving additional attraction and zest to the occasion.

STATE TROOPS.—It is said that Holden has paid off and disbanded his State Troops, except that he retains two Companies, one to be stationed here and the other at Company Shops. We protest against either of these being kept for any purpose. There is neither necessity nor reason for it. It is too expensive. Holden appears to be dreadfully uneasy. He keeps a part of the city police and a part of a Company of colored soldiers to watch his residence and guard his person. It is all unnecessary. Holden is such an Ishmaelite, his hand being against every man, he supposes every man's hand is against him. But if he will send home his troops and conduct himself towards every one decently and uprightly, we will insure his life for 5 cents, provided he will only put upon it, its real value. We are satisfied no one will do him personal harm, unless he provokes it by personal offence. No one has any idea of visiting upon his head for his many public sins, any private punishment. He may be sure of that. The hundred and one anonymous notes he has received ought not to scare a grasshopper. No brave man will threaten in the dark, and we rejoice that our Conservatives and Democrats are brave and will not take any private advantage of him.

FIRE IN NORTHAMPTON.—The residence of Mr. Benjamin Suiter, of Northampton county, two miles from Garysburg, was burned on Wednesday last, by fire communicating from a stovepipe, running through the ceiling. The building was a very fine one, estimated to be worth $3,000.

For the Sentinel.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.,

Editor of the Sentinel:

DEAR SIR: Several names have been mentioned in the SENTINEL in connection with the next United States Senatorship from North Carolina. Permit me to add to the number the name of the gallant and gifted Matt. W. Ransom, of Northampton, than whom a more suitable man cannot be found in the State. Able, eloquent, large-hearted, patriotic, true as steel to the honor of North Carolina, Gen. Ransom has proved himself a faithful and devoted son of his native State, and his talents will do honor to her in any position. Gen. Ransom's disabilities have been removed by Congress and therefore there will be no difficulty about his admission if elected. It seems to be generally conceded that our Legislature will not take the risk of sending any one to the United States Senate whose disabilities have not been removed. The sensible letter of Col. R. H. Cowan seems to have settled this point. Doubtless all the distinguished gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in connection with the Senatorship, who are laboring under disabilities, endorse and sanction Col. Cowan's position.

JUSTITIA.

Extract from a letter written by a gentleman, resident in Central New York, to a friend in this State.

"I can hardly keep bottled up any longer the feelings we have been full of since the news of the grand political change in North Carolina. I have watched all the recent movements there with profound interest, and witnessed Holden's usurpation with an indignation in no way less than your own. No such blows against civil liberty and popular rights have ever been struck in this country as those lately struck by Governor Holden and Judge Pearson. Even the most of the people here regard the arming of troops among you as an outrage that should render him infamous forever; and they look with no more favor upon Judge Pearson's strange legal rulings and cowardly truckling and subservience. So far as I know, only a single radical paper has spoken in his defence, and that is Harper's Weekly. The conduct of the people of your State is universally applauded; their high spirited patience till the time of voting came, and their resolute repudiation then of the bad men who had misruled them. Gov. Holden, I judge, must be pretty thoroughly scared. How a man so unscrupulous and full of devices of evil may continue to evade the consequences of his defeat, I can hardly imagine. He will bear watching. I have heard many here say that he ought to be impeached. I think so too, if under the laws that can be done effectually. Such conduct as his should be so punished, that he may become an object of universal execration till his history shall be forgotten.

In any event, I trust the leaders of the Conservative party will make a wise use of their success, and make it permanent."

[From the Shreveport Bulletin.]

A TEXAN'S DREAM.

"I dreamed," said he, "that the day of judgment had come, and contrary to all the teachings of my youth, it appeared that mankind were not to be judged individually, but by governments, by nationalities, and by States. The first government called to judgment was that of England, and as soon as the name of England sounded the immortal Burke rose from his grave, and declared that he had lived and died in England, that he knew her people to be loyal alike to God and their country; and on his recommendation England passed into the celestial city.

The next government called to account was the United States of America, and when the name of America sounded Mount Vernon trembled as the immortal Washington arose from his grave and prayed that his Government should not be tried as England had been, as a consolidated despotism, but as free, sovereign and independent States.

The first State called to account was old Virginia, and as soon as the name of Virginia sounded the immortal Henry arose to his feet, and declared he had lived and died in Virginia, that he knew her people to be loyal alike to God and the country, and on his recommendation Virginia passed through the gates of the city.

The next State called to judgment was South Carolina, and as soon as the name of South Carolina sounded, John C. Calhoun arose from his grave and declared that with all her faults he knew her people to be loyal alike to God and the country; and on his recommendation South Carolina passed into the celestial city.

The third State called to account was the State of Louisiana, and as soon as the name of Louisiana sounded, Henry Watkins Allen, bursting asunder his beautiful flower-decked tomb, arose and proclaimed that he had lived and governed in Louisiana, but died in exile; that he knew her people to be loyal to God and the Southern Confederacy; and on his recommendation Louisiana passed into the celestial city, amid the rejoicing songs of the heavenly hosts.

The next State called to judgment was the Lone Star State of Texas; and as soon as the name Texas sounded the immortal Houston rose from his tomb clothed in the habiliments of the soldier, spoke of the battle of San Jacinto, and declared that he knew her people to be alike loyal to God and the country, and just as the Lone Star State was about to pass through the gates into the city, that scalawag Jack Hamilton, sprung to his feet, and swore that he represented the cowpens of the Lone Star State, that he knew her people to be disloyal alike to the country, and on his ipse dixit, Texas went to h——."

A stranger, whose name was ascertained to be Joseph Jones, was found on Tuesday afternoon, in the Northwestern portion of Wilmington, in a senseless and probably dying condition.

A crazy man was detected on Tuesday last in placing obstructions on the Atlantic and North Carolina R. R. He was taken charge of by the proper authorities.

We learn from the Baltimore Sun that the first package of new crop Carolina rice in that market was received on the 30th of August, by steamer from Charleston, shipped by Paul C. Trenholm, and was sold at nine cents.

The disputed question as to who is the legal Sheriff of Craven county, Major Dennison, the present incumbent, or O. Hubbs, the Sheriff elect, was decided by the Board of Commissioners of that county on last Tuesday in favor of Dennison. But when Dennison presented his bond for $5,000 it was refused as insufficient and the office was declared vacant and Hubbs inducted into it.

Mr. William Robeson, a well known printer, died in Wilmington on Tuesday night.

The Order of the Knights of Pythias will be shortly introduced into this State.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Evening Dispatches

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Under instructions from this government Washburne yesterday recognized the new government in France, and tendered congratulations on the establishment to a Republic.

Grant has arrived, but departs to-morrow.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Five thousand Americans are processioning. A strong police force accompanies the line; no disturbance yet.

NEW YORK.

SARATOGA, Sept. 8.—The Republican Convention have nominated Stewart L. Wood for Governor.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 8.—Favre was much moved when Washburne announced the American recognition. Grasping Washburne's hand he exclaimed: "I receive the notification with gratitude and profound emotion."

It is reported that Louis Blanc goes to London; Ledru Rollin to Washington, and Dufraisse to Vienna as French ambassadors.

Robert Mitchell and Paul Cassangua were captured at Sedan.

Every army is engaged in repairing arms. Those on hand are generally worthless. Not a single French flag was captured at Sedan; all burned before the capitulation. The Prussians are expected before the walls to-morrow.

The Prussians occupy St. Gezier. Twenty thousand Prussians appeared before Laon.—Communication with Mulhouse and Mezieres is restored. It is reported the garrison at Strasbourg made a successful sortie yesterday killing many Prussians. It is said that the Prussians have been decimated since the commencement of the siege.

The French Consul at Basle telegraphs that a sortie from Strasburg killed 10,000 Prussians and captured many guns. The Prussians in attempting to cross the border near Pont Austerlitz were absolutely annihilated by Metrailleus posted at Port De Fecheurs.

Jules Farris has reached the adhesion of the chureParis press.

The Journal Officiel says that notwithstanding preliminary leisures, mediation may succeed. The proclamation of the Republic created intense agitation in Italy. No Prussians are yet on the Department of the Seine. Strategists are puzzled at the abandonment of Seine and Montmedy. The Prussians under Gen. Moring, occupied Rheims.

LONDON, September 8.—There was an immense French sympathy meeting last night at New Castle on the Tyne.

It is rumored that the French have made peace proposals to the King of Prussia.

The leading bankers here regard the political outbreak as unfavorable. No change in the bank rate, but money is rather active.

MADRID, September 8.—In view of the recent important events, the constituent Cortes are called to assemble on Sept. 25th.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 8.—The Independence Belge in describing the arrival of the Prince Imperial at Mons says, he was attended by three persons in plain clothes, no carriage being in waiting, the party took an omnibus for the hotel where a great crowd was assembled, and the Prince showing alarm, the landlord reassured him by saying, "Have no fear Monseigneur, you are in a neutral and peaceful country where harm cannot befall you."

BRUSSELS, Sept. 8.—Palaiko is at Namur.

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—A part of Loraine and all Alsace will probably be demanded.

[The dispatch goes on to mark out the probable boundaries, which at present is of mere matter of speculation.]

Bazaine is still negotiating for the surrender of Metz. The French prisoners are enthusiastic over the disposition of the Emperor. The Emperor is at Wilhelmshohe. He has courtiers and attention.

King William entered Rheims on Monday.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

[SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL.]

FROM KINSTON.

KINSTON, Sept. 8.—The Conservative celebration here to-day was a grand success. Over four thousand people participated, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

A salute of 27 guns was fired.

A sad casualty marred the pleasure of the day; two men were severely wounded by a premature explosion of one of the guns.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Stephens C. Rowan is appointed Vice Admiral, vice Porter, promoted.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Freights over the Trunk Railroad lines West have advanced 25 per cent to-day. A further advance is expected next week.

The steamer, "Red Jacket," exploded, killing three and sinking two coal barges that were in tow.

The Telegram's special Paris dispatch says that the city is unusually quiet, but wears the appearance of earnest determination. Under constant rumors of the approach of the Prussians, the determination to defend the city becomes more apparent. All classes share this feeling which is becoming hourly more fervid.—Troops under arms in Paris number 140,000 including 14th corps of National Guard and volunteers. Rouen, Havre and Cherbourg, are in a state of defence.

It is apprehended that Bazaine has capitulated from want of provisions and ammunition.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—The "Ranguca," a vessel of three tons, which left Queenstown eighty days ago, has arrived.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, September 8.—Favre received the employees of the Foreign office and said that he would make no present changes as they were accustomed to the duties. The Foreign Ambassadors visited the new Ministry yesterday.

There are reports from all quarters of contemplated mediation, but there is no cessation of preparations for National defence. The Gaulois says, that a part of the administration goes to Tours, if necessary to Lyons, and from thence to Marseilles. It is reported that the Committee installed in Lyons, think of resisting the government because it is too moderate.

Laon has been turned by the Prussians, who are coming by the Aisne Valley. The Journal says as the forests of the Campaigne and Chantailly may serve as a refuge for the enemy they should be burned. It is understood that in case of mediation, Lord Lyons, Chivalier Neigra, the Italian Minister, Senor Olozaga, the Spanish Minister and Washburn will go to the Prussian King's head quarters.

Gambetta has issued a proclamation to the Prefects of Departments, bidding them to think only of war, and to postpone every thought save that of national defence. A new loan is contemplated.

Paris is provisioned for two million men.

A new corps called the Guardians of Peace has been organized.

Washburn has written a letter announcing his authorization to recognize the Republic, and offering the congratulations of the American Government and people, who hear with enthusiasm of the proclamation of the Republic, unattended with bloodshed.

The letter after recalling the traditional friendship of the two countries, congratulates the French upon their choice of Jules Favre, as Foreign Minister.

It is contemplated to appoint Ambassadors to London, Vienna and Berlin from the active members of the party of the Left. No call will be made for universal suffrage until after the war.

The French Ambassador at Constantinople has resigned.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Healthful reaction in the Stock market is hopeless, while the French Republicans bluster for war. The Times and other Journals deprecate the policy which inflicts such consequences upon France for the acts of the Emperor.

Copenhagen advices indicate that the Baltic fleet unanimously accepts the Republic.

The Marquis of Westminister has received the order of the Garter made vacant by the death of the Earl of Clarendon.

Advices from Melbourne represent the rapid extension of telegraphs in the island in order to connect with the India cable.

The Prussian advance reached Laferte Sous Journaire, four miles from Paris.

It is said that Bazaine is well supplied with provisions. It is believed that the French anxiously desire peace. The Independence Belge says that England withholds mediation at the instance of Foreign Minister Granville, who holds that the integrity of the French territory is no longer hospitable.

It is rumored via Marseilles that a Republic has been proclaimed in Florence, and the Crown Prince Humbert made President.

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—The Queen sent her Chief de Cuisine to the French Emperor at Wilhelmshohe.

FLORENCE, Sept. 8.—Victor Emanuel announces his ability to maintain order everywhere including the Papal States, if necessary.

HAVRE, Sept. 8.—Martial law has been proclaimed here.

MADRID, September 8.—All classes are satisfied with the French revolution. The Republicans telegraphed congratulations to the new government.

BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mebegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mebegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for we write we are consoled with the pr ud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privilged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as payed.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD,
